

I have heard that Pappas Telecasting Companies are donating $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates in certain areas. It is an example of a powerful media group abusing its privileged access to the public airwaves.

Pappas uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas' actions are legally questionable. It is obvious that Pappas is not serving the public interest. Allowing them to do this is a dangerous precedent.

Please see that the media ownership rules are strengthened.
